CAMBODIAN PALM SUGAR JOURNEY

The palm sugar is akin to a national culinary treasure in Cambodia as this native sweetener is a staple ingredient in every local household.

Get to know this satisfyingly sweet treat with a culinary tour which is both educational and inspiring, with a trip to the countryside. Amidst the vast view of a Cambodian rice field as the backdrop, our own chef as the Culinary Insider shares insights and stories on the humble origins and importance of palm sugar in Cambodian cooking. Witness the villagers bring in the harvested goods, and join in with the harvesting or extraction of palm juice. Learn more about the production of palm sugar through an informative demonstration, on how it is boiled and processed, and the intricate methods involved.

The tour ends on a high note with an exquisite four-course palm sugar themed lunch or dinner menu at The Dining Room.
